What:

FedTech U teaches FDCC members how to create persuasive visuals to more effectively communicate case facts, themes, and/or theories to a jury, judge, arbitrator, mediator, colleagues and/or your clients.

Participants of this course will complete the course knowing how to utilize visual communication techniques of a client's case or in any boardroom or courtroom presentation in a more persuasive and compelling way. The course will focus heavily on the software program TrialPad and utilizing it on the hardware of the iPad Pro - an include an industry leading faculty and speakers.

Members will learn from each other in an encouraging environment and will pick up useful techniques for making presentations. In the weeks leading up to the actual course, registered participants will be able to speak with faculty members to discuss problems and issues as well as learn the technology.

Who Should Attend?

- FDCC members who are interested in leveraging technology to elevate their presentations to the next level .
- Members who are interested in making better presentations to juries, clients, mediators, and arbitrators. No prior technological experience is required, only a desire to explore and learn.
- FedTech U is designed for FDCC members to promote significant enhancement of member skills in the visual communication/presentation space to achieve next level lawyering.
